

Supporters of Bits of Future: Food for All

Currently 9 Countries have expressed their official interest in starting pilot installations utilizing Hyst technology within the Bits of Future project: the Republic of Senegal, with a letter from the Ministry of Agriculture dated 23 May 2011; the Transitional Government of the Somali Republic, by letter of the Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee for Europe dated 18 May 2011; the Republic of Burkina Faso, with a letter from the Ministry of Agriculture dated 13 September, 2010; the Republic of Cameroon, with a letter from the Ministry of Agriculture and Deputy Prime Minister of 25 October 2011 and letter from the Ministry of Energy and Water Resources dated 6 February 2012; the Republic of Rwanda, by letter of the Consulate in Italy dated 26 July 2011; the Republic of Burundi, with a letter from the Ministry of External Relations and International Cooperation of 19 April 2013, the Republic of Congo Brazzaville, with a letter from the Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock of 30 April 2013; the Republic of Niger, with a letter from the Ministry of Environment, Urban Safety and Sustainable Development of 17 September 2014, the Federal Government of Nigeria with a letter from the Federal Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development of 22 September 2015.

Important acknowledgments have also come from the FAO Director-General and the President of IFAD. Strong interest has also been expressed by other African Countries with whom we are formalizing our relationship.

Institutional Relations

The Bits of Future: Food for All project and Hyst technology were presented to several Italian and international institutions and received great appreciation from all of them, including:

The Presidency of the Italian Republic
The Ministry of Cooperation
The Ministry of Economic Development
The Ministry of the Environment
The Ministry of Foreign Affairs
ENEA
WORLD BANK
AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK
AFRICAN UNION

Commercial Interests

BioHyst has been contacted by about 150 companies interested in the technology. Among these we wish to mention the Unione Petrolifera (Oil Industry trade association in Italy).

SCIENZA PER AMORE
BITS.TECHNOHYST.COM